

Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was discussed: It was first shown to applicant that there may be allowable subject matter if limitations were claimed appropriately and if 112 issues were overcome. It became clear that there were too many errors for an examiner's amendment and it was further unclear as to how the applicant wanted to word such an amendment. Therefore, the idea of the examiner's amendment was abandoned. Still, applicant gave examiner insight into how to interpret various USC 112 issues and examiner thoroughly discussed how applicant can overcome the prior art for the next submission..
